

THE TERRACES

AT KINGWOOD TOWN CENTER

Life Changing Senior Living

A photograph of an elderly couple embracing warmly. The woman is in the foreground, smiling broadly, wearing a light-colored cardigan. The man is behind her, also smiling, with his arms around her. The entire image is covered with a semi-transparent green filter. Centered over the couple is white text.

An Exceptional Experience

Inspired living awaits you at The Terraces at Kingwood Town Center. An invigorating workout in our fitness center or swim in our indoor heated pool, a long walk next to the Greenbelt, an evening happy hour, a chef-prepared meal, and engaging conversation with fabulous new neighbors... these are a few of the benefits of independent retirement living at The Terraces at Kingwood Town Center.

Design your day, your life and your best years just the way you want. Sleep in after a late night movie at our theater or get up early for a sunrise walk. Host friends in your apartment home or at the restaurant for a fantastic meal. Learn more about subjects from guest speakers or even present something yourself.

Inspired Living

There are so many benefits to independent retirement living, but the most important one is doing exactly what you like. Weekly housekeeping, fresh linen and towel service, delicious meals in the restaurant and a host of hospitality team members stand ready to serve your requests. In addition, we offer transportation services to help you get where you need to go. Whether it's a doctor's appointment, a shopping trip, or a social outing, we've got you covered.

At The Terraces at Kingwood Town Center, we strive to create a warm and welcoming community where you can build lasting friendships with like-minded individuals.

We invite you to join us and discover the joys of independent retirement living for yourself.
